3. Post for Election:

Post (No of seats)
President (one)
Vice President (two)
Secretary (one)
Joint Secretary (two)
Treasurer (one)
Executive Members (eight)
4. Details of Election Officer:
Chief Election Officer : Mr. G S Pattnaik (IAS, Rtd.)
Election Officer (1) : Mr. Janmejy Khuntia (Ass. Professor, DU)
Election Officer (2) : Mr. Neeraj Gupta

Election Officers will jointly conduct the election and if for any reason any of the officer(s) is absent on the scheduled date then other Election Officer(s) will conduct the election.

5. Guidelines for Election:

- (a) The following five categories of members are eligible to participate in election as voter or candidate:
- (i) Life Members
 - (ii) Life Partner Members
 - (iii) Donor Members
 - (iv) Patron Members
 - (v) Chief Patron Members
- (b) All above-mentioned five categories of members have one vote to cast. However for Life Partner Members category that carries two names (husband and wife) has single voting right only and any one member from these two can participate in the election process. Further it is clarified that Associate Members have no voting rights and hence not eligible to cast their vote or contest election.
- (c) Only above-mentioned five categories of members will be eligible to enter the election house after registering their names in the registration counter. Members need to show any of their photo-ID cards such as Election I Card, PAN card, Aadhar Card, Passport, DL etc. during the registration process.
- (d) The Election Officers will call nominations for each post during the election process. Each nomination requires one proposer and two seconding members. Any member who is a candidate, proposer or seconding member of a candidate will not be eligible for acting as proposer and/or seconding member for any other candidate.
- (e) In case there is only one nomination for any post then the candidate will be declared elected unanimously. If for any post there is more than one nomination, then the election officers will conduct election for that post.

You are requested to be present on the Election Day and exercise your right to fairly choose a responsible Governing Body for the Society and support in fulfilling the wishes of Lord Jagannath.

Yours truly,

Paban Kumar Jain
Secretary
